

TWO GROUPS OF STUDENTS, LANCASTER NORMAL AND INDUSTRIAL INSTITUTE, LANCASTER, S. C. VALUE OF PROPERTY, $10,000
 Founded by Rev. C. O. Petty. One of the schools of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church. President R. J. Crockett, founder and for fifteen years president of Clinton Institute, Rock Hill, S. C., is serving his first year at Lancaster. There were 6 teachers and 280 students in 1908, with 4 studying for the ministry. The annual expenses amount to $4,000, secured largely by contributions, public and private appeals.

LOMAX-HANNON HIGH AND INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL, GREENVILLE, ALA.

Founded 1898 by Bishop Thomas H. Lomax and Rev. M. Hannon, of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church. Located in a small town, forty-four miles south of Montgomery. Smart B. Boyd is the principal of the Institute, and Bishop J. W. Alstork, D.D., a former principal, is president and treasurer of the Board. A small building has been erected on the campus for a theological department. The property is valued at $15,000. The plan of the school is professional and industrial. Students are required to attend Sunday-school and preaching services each Lord's Day. Devotional exercises are held every morning.

TEACHERS, LOMAX-HANNON HIGH AND INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL

The school reported 4 teachers and 120 students in 1908, with annual expenses of $2,500, secured from the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church and other friends.